Thought Questions

Please spend some time praying and thinking as you answer the following questions.

1. Where is God leading in your long-range goals for education and lifework? How does Weimar College fit in with those goals? (75 words or less)

2. What is your Christian experience like? (i.e. background, conversion, present relationship with God and devotional life, relationship to Seventh-day Adventist Church) (100 words or less)

3) Please prayerfully read the Student Life Handbook found on the web at www.weimar.edu. For a printed copy contact us. In your own words, state your understanding of the the following philosophies/standards: Spiritual Development; Couples and Dating; Dress and Personal Appearance; Healthful Lifestyle; and Competitive Sports. Use more paper if needed.

Personal Commitment

Weimar College, a Seventh-day Adventist Christian school, expects its students to possess the following characteristics: integrity, a teachable spirit, respect for authority, a positive spiritual influence, and a positive support for the school's principles and guidelines. Such a student will conform not merely to the letter of the law, but especially to its spirit.

By my signature on the line below I am acknowledging that this is the kind of student I choose to be. If at any time I find myself not in harmony with the spirit or specifics of Weimar College, I will voluntarily withdraw.

I have answered the above questions as accurately as possible, and if I am accepted as a student, I pledge to uphold the educational principles and practices of Weimar College.
